There Is No One Who Will Question That Prices Are Great Motors In Moving Goods If They Are Low Enough.

A price may be "low" and yet not a sacrifice. No merchant can continually deal in "sacrifices" and thrive. Close buyers can often purchase so as to sell lower than others and yet profit quite as much. It is the price inducement. This is our stronghold. We are always a little lower in price and our goods are the finest and most attractive known to the trade.

HERE IS AN INSTANCE OF "PRICE INDUCEMENT"

That is powerful enough to explain itself. We offer Monday morning the greatest bargains in EMBROIDERIES ever seen in the city. Now the reason for the inducement. We cleared out a big lot from an importer at a price that enables us to offer new handsome goods far below market values.

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK.

ENTRY OF ATTRACTIONS FOR ALL LOVERS OF SOCIAL AMUSEMENTS.

The Rainbow Festival, German Maifest, Patterson Club Soiree Dansante, St. Dominic's Union Theatricals, Zouaves' Picnic, Wagner Concert.

and pleasant as possible that the public served so long and faithfully is asked to turn out and make it overwhelming. An excellent program is perfected with Mrs. Margaret Wilshire and Prof. Emilie Levy in charge. In addition to the superb one-act farce, "Aunt Charlotte's Maid," and a fancy farce by Mrs. Marion Ziegler, some of the finest local musical talent will participate. Tickets, $1. Reserved seats are now on sale at the regular box office of the theater.

The Wagner Concert.

Next Friday evening at the Memphis Theater will occur the closing concert of the present season by the Wagner Quartet Club. The box office will open, as announced, next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Theater, with Mr. Frank Gray and a committee in charge, and after that date will remain open during the week at the music store of E. Witzmann & Co., on Second street.

Mr. E. Levy, Director of the Wagner Club, has secured cultivated talent of a very high order for the closing event, and the approaching concert will go upon record as one to exceed the Philharmonic Club, which is widely established. Miss Greenwood has for a long time been a favorite with every music lover of the city, and richly she deserves of it. Miss Becky Levy, the other artist, is a Nashville lady, who comes with hearty local commendations. She has lately returned from an extended tour of study in Europe, where her naturally fine voice attracted universal notice and put her in demand as a soloist teacher. She has been seen and heard by a few Memphians, all of whom pronounced her not only a young lady of charming manners and personal beauty, but a vocalist whose name will yet be known throughout the country, unless providentially hindered.
